How to open and trade on demo account

InstaForex clients can open a demo account by means of a broker or directly in the trading platform.

Below, you can find instructions for both variants.

1. Open a demo account by means of a broker

- Fill in the registration form on the demo account opening page on the InstaForex website. Choose the currency and the sum of the virtual deposit.

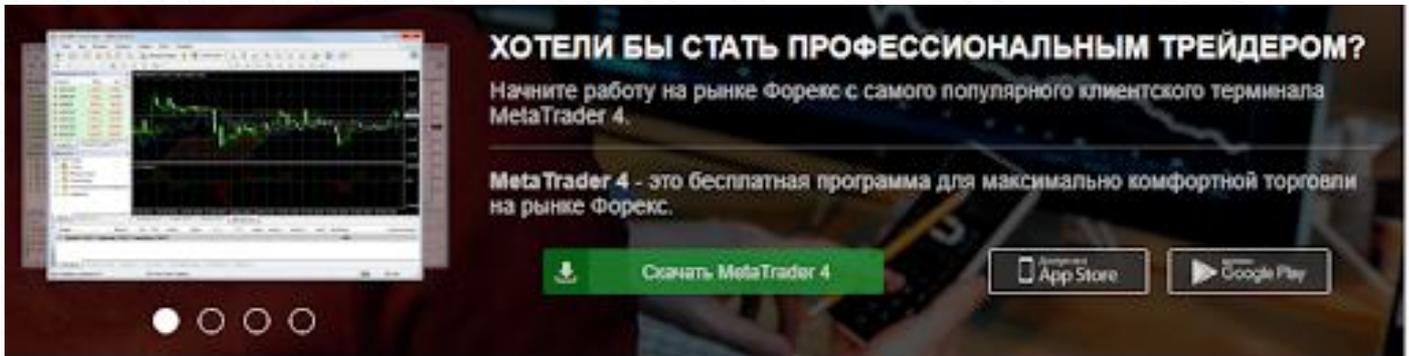

The screenshot shows a registration form titled "Opening of Forex Demo Account". It contains the following fields and options:

- Text input field: "Enter full name"
- Text input field: "Enter email"
- Text input field: "+358"
- Dropdown menu: "+ Finland" (with a plus sign icon)
- Dropdown menu: "EUR"
- Dropdown menu: "5000"
- Green button: "Open an account"

- Check your email for the account number as well as a login and password
- Download the MetaTrader4 trading platform and register
- Once the authorization is finished, you will get access to the demo account

2. Open a demo account via a trading platform

- Install MetaTrader 4 on your computer or smartphone.

- Open a program and select Open a demo account.
- Fill in the registration form. Specify your personal data, account currency, sum, and leverage. Default settings are the following: leverage – 1:100, currency – USD, sum – 10,000 units.
- Confirm the registration.

PLEASE NOTE!

By email, you will get a login and password, which you should indicate every time you open a trading platform. Remember the data as it is very difficult and sometimes impossible to recover it.
